

AMERICAN EMBASSY JUDO CLUB

SERVING THE TOKYO COMMUNITY FOR MORE THAN FIFTY-YEARS

AEJC began in 1957 with the combined efforts of Shizuya Sato, and key members of the U.S. State Department then serving at the U.S Embassy Japan. Since its founding, the American Embassy Judo Club has become a conerstone of the Tokyo diplomatic, expatriate, and local communities, where over two thousand men, women, and children have studied unique aspects of Japanese culture, and learned practical methods of self-defense.

Ambassador Douglas MacArthur Jr.
1st Honorary AEJC President

During its more than fifty-year history, beginning with the first post WWII U.S. Ambassador to Japan, Douglas MacArthur Jr., resident U.S. Ambassadors have served as the Honorary Judo Club President. Please see some examples below.

Edwin Reischauer, U.S. Ambassador to Japan
1961 - 1966

Armin H. Meyer, U.S. Ambassador to Japan
1969 - 1972

Thomas S. Foley, U.S. Ambassador to Japan
1998 - 2001

Howard H. Baker, Jr., U.S. Ambassador to
Japan 2001 - 2005

AMERICAN EMBASSY JUDO CLUB

SERVING THE TOKYO COMMUNITY FOR MORE THAN FIFTY-YEARS

International Seminar Participants at AEJC Dojo

AEJC Jr. Judo

International Seminar Training at AEJC Dojo

Sato Sensei demonstrating seoi-nage (shoulder throw)

Sato Sensei demonstrating kuzushi (breaking an opponent's balance)

The philosophy and practical guidelines of Judo and Nihon Jujutsu practice at AEJC, under the direct tutelage of Sato Sensei, Nihon Jujutsu Hanshi 10th Dan, Judo Hanshi 9th Dan, can best be found in the Japanese proverbs:

精力善用自他用榮

(seiryoku zenyo jita kyoei)

commit oneself to maximum efficiency and mutual benefit in all endeavors

柔よく剛を制す

(jyu yoku go o seisu)

flexibility overcomes strength

American Embassy Judo Club: www.usejc.com

Kokusai Budoin, International Martial Arts Federation \(IMAF\): www.imaf.com